Illustrious Potentate

THE above is a photograph of the newly elected President of the Worcester County Shrine Club, Noble Walter J. Fleming.

Noble Walter does not claim to have been named after our first Imperial Potentate of the Shrine of North America who was Most Illustrious Walter M. Fleming of New York City. However, Walter is living up to true Shrine tradition and does hold claim to being the first President of a Shrine Club in Aleppo's jurisdiction to start a membership drive.

A letter received by Illustrious Potentate Frank B. Ells on November 2 from Walter advised that he has appointed a large membership committee among the members of the Worcester County Shrine Club. This committee intends to visit every eligible prospect for membership in the Shrine, located in Worcester County, for the purpose of obtaining their signatures on a petition for membership in Aleppo, to be acted upon at our November 25 Ceremonial.

Walter and his membership committee challenge the Shrine Clubs of South-eastern Massachusetts (New Bedford), Merrimack Valley (Lawrence) and Gardner, Mass., to a contest for the largest number of petitions for our big Fall Ceremonial, November 25. Let's go Nobles!

MUSICIANS, ATTENTION!

NOBLES of Aleppo Temple know that their Temple is the Fourth Largest Temple in North America. For many years preceding World War II the Aleppo Band was the largest fraternal Band in the World and when Aleppo's Famous Band appeared at Imperial Council Sessions, all Shrinedom was thrilled.

The War, age and death have reduced the membership of our Band.

We would like our Aleppo Band to once again gain the enviable and distinguished position as the largest and most famous Band in Shrinedom.

MUSICIANS who are members of Aleppo Temple are invited to make their musical talent of any kind known and to share it with the Aleppo Band and Aleppo Temple.

What instrument do you play? What other musical talent have you?

The Band holds its rehearsals every Monday evening at the Temple Headquarters, 97 Huntington Avenue. Come up and meet the members of the Band and join in with their "Social Hour" which starts at 6:15 p.m. The Rehearsal follows shortly after seven o'clock.

Noble "Al" Saunders, the Band Director, will welcome the opportunity of an interview with you any Monday evening.

BOSTON COMMANDERY FETES NEWLY ELECTED GRAND COMMANDER

A TESTIMONIAL dinner to Right Eminent Sir Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr., was given by the Officers and Sir Knights of Boston Commandery No. 2, K.T., Wednesday, November 2, 1949, in the beautiful Dorothy Quincy suite of the new John Hancock Building, Boston, in honor of his election to the office of Right Eminent Grand Commander of Knights Templar of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Em. Sir Herman C. McStay, Commander of Boston Commandery, who was Chairman of the testimonial committee, presided over the dinner which was attended by nearly 600 Sir Knights of the Commandery accompanied by their ladies.

R. Em. Sir Wilson, who is a Past Commander of Boston Commandery, was elected and installed in the office of Grand Commander at the Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery, held in the Masonic Temple, Boston, Wednesday, October 26, 1949. Judge Wilson was presented a gift by Commander McStay in behalf of the Sir Knights of Boston Commandery.

Among the guests at the head table introduced by Em. Commander McStay in addition to Judge and Mrs. Wilson were: Most Worshipful Roger Keith, Grand Master of Masons in Massachusetts and Mrs. Keith; Most Eminent Sir Harry G. Pollard, Past Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America and Mrs. Pollard; Illustrious Claude L. Allen, Active member of the Supreme Council, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite and Deputy for Massachusetts and Mrs. Allen; Illustrious Noble George E. Stringfellow of West Orange, New Jersey, Imperial Outer Guard of the Shrine of North America; the Illustrious Potentate of Aleppo Temple, Frank B. Ells, recently appointed Grand Warder of the Grand Commandery and Mrs. Ells; and Mrs. Herman C. McStay, wife of the Em. Commander of Boston Commandery.

Grand Commandery officers present included Em. Sir J. Herbert Hinds, Deputy Grand Commander and Mrs. Hinds; Em. Sir Charles F. Fairbanks, 2nd, Grand Generalissimo and Mrs. Fairbanks; Em. Sir Frederic Kennedy, Grand Captain General and Mrs. Kennedy; Em. Sir Harrie M. Taft, Grand Senior Warden and Mrs. Taft; Em. Sir Kenneth H. Earle, Grand Junior Warden and Mrs. Earle; R. Em. Sir George A. Weeks, Grand Recorder and Mrs. Weeks and R. Em. Sir A. Kenneth Martin, Junior Past Grand Commander and Mrs. Martin.

Following the dinner more than 1,000 Sir Knights and ladies filled the John Hancock Hall where the famous Swanzy Players of Swanzy, New Hampshire, presented Denman Thompson's 4-act drama, "The Old Homestead." The cast of the Swanzy players, eighty in number, included the Double Male Quartet and the Swanzy Band. This appearance of the Swanzy Players was the first time this group had ever presented "The Old Homestead" outside of Swanzy, New Hampshire, where the show was originated.

Before the opening curtain of the show Commander McStay presented the new Grand Commander to those present in the theatre, who in turn presented his newly elected and appointed officers of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

The presentation of "The Old Homestead" was the sixth annual Theatre Party and Ladies Night of Boston Commandery.

SHRINERS THRILL 100,000 IN PARADE THROUGH STREETS OF BOSTON

ALEPPO TEMPLE HOST TO SHRINES OF THE NORTHEAST

GREET HAROLD LLOYD IN BIG BOSTON GARDEN CEREMONIAL

Harold Lloyd, Imperial Potentate of the Shrine of North America, was given a tumultuous welcome as he rode into Boston Garden during the Northeastern Shrine Ceremonial and Fall Field Annual Meeting of the Northeastern Shrine Association, held in Boston, Saturday, August 27, 1949. The above panorama photograph, taken by a Boston Post photographer, shows Imperial Assistant Rabban, Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr.; Chairman of the Harold Lloyd Ceremonial Committee, and Illustrious Potentate Frank B. Ellis of Aleppo, greeting the Imperial Potentate on his arrival in the Boston Garden arena while 2,000 uniformed Nobles from the Temples of the northeast stand at attention and 13,000 Nobles of Aleppo and visiting Temples register their approval. Photos inserted are: left, Imperial Assistant Rabban, Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr. center, Imperial Potentate Harold Lloyd and right, Illustrious Potentate Frank B. Ellis.

The extensive program of events for "Shrine Day in Boston," the biggest event of its kind ever held in the East, opened at 10:00 A.M. in Mechanics Building with Competitive drills by Patrols of visiting Temples, for the coveted "Harold Lloyd Trophy," followed by a business meeting and election of officers of the Northeastern Shrine Association. A full form ceremonial in the afternoon saw 223 new "Sons of the Desert" cross the hot sands as members of the celebrated "Harold Lloyd Class."

A mammoth street parade through the streets of Boston by the officers and uniformed units of the Temples in the Northeast, was witnessed by over 100,000 people, who stood in the hot summer sun on a Saturday afternoon to witness the colorful Shrine parade and greet and applaud the popular dean of filmlands funny men and Boston's guest of the day, Imperial Potentate Harold Lloyd.

The parade, which took an hour to pass a given point, and led by Aleppo's gigantic Bean Pot, and sterling Mounted Patrol, consisted of Shrine bands, patrols and varied Oriental units of Temples from St. John, New Brunswick, to Bridgeport, Connecticut and Albany, New York; to Providence, Rhode Island. Over 2,000 Uniformed Nobles from ten temples participated.

Climaxing the day's events was the reception of the Imperial Potentate in Boston Garden, massed band concert by the bands of all Temples and exhibition drills by the winners of the Harold Lloyd cups and a gigantic vaudeville show.

In his address to the Nobles, the Imperial Potentate thanked the Shriners of the Northeast for what he said was the finest welcome he had received in any city he had yet visited in his tour around North America as the number one Shriner. The Imperial Potentate said, "I want to let the public at large know we're not just a lot of horn-tooters, we do stand for something besides fun. I think our Shrine Hospitals comprise one of the greatest philanthropies in the world today." Describing himself as a "goodwill ambassador," the Imperial Potentate said, "I didn't come here to make speeches, I just want to be one of the boys."

THE names of the Nobles of Aleppo who joined the Circus Daddy Club by purchasing tickets to the recent 9th Annual Shrine Circus, and returning the tickets with their check, to be used to admit lesser privileged, orphaned and crippled children to our circus, have been previously published in Daddy Club List No. 1.

Daddy Club list No. 2 contains the names — as far as space will permit — of the Nobles who joined the Club since September 10. Due to the fact that the demand for Daddy tickets by deserving children, far exceeded the supply, the committee appeals to those Nobles who have not already made returns on their tickets, to join the Daddy Club now, by returning their unused membership tickets and a check to cover at least a part if not all returned tickets, to assist the committee in balancing this ticket account. Join now, Noble. It's a worthy cause!

THE 9th Annual Shrine Circus, sponsored by Aleppo Temple of Boston at the great Boston Garden, is now history. Our 1949 show, running fourteen performances during the six days starting Sunday, September 25, included a morning, afternoon, and evening show on the closing day, and was featured by parades of our uniformed Units on Sunday, Tuesday, and Friday. Members of the Degree Staff, as usual, covered all performances in the sale of by far the largest souvenir program we have yet produced.

Although ticket sale returns by our membership are still to be completed, your Chairman is profoundly gratified for the continued generous support and enthusiastic interest evidenced by a growing majority of the Nobility. Underprivileged and less fortunate children who attended the Circus as our guests, or as the guests of business houses and public individuals who participated in that feature of our work, this year, far exceeded any previous total. Present returns also indicate net receipts in excess of 1948 figures.

THE following is the list of the top prize winners in this year's animal naming contest which again was so generously publicized by the Boston Post. Thousands of letters were received from children all over New England suggesting appropriate names for two Australian Kangaroos, a male and a female, presented by this year's Shrine Circus to the Franklin Park Zoo. Winners of the $100 first prize, for being the first to submit the winning names "Don" and "Unda" (Down Under), was 14-year-old Anne Allen of 17 Burn Street, Jamaica Plain. Second prize went to Robert R. Black of 8 Gould Street, Wakefield, and third to Joanne White of 41 Grover Street, Roslindale. The other 50 top winners were:
